

Kolsuma

It was fun because we made ~~are~~
own ~~are~~ dance move

Mary Neal and the Somerstown girls of the Espérance Club were the instigators of the English Folk Song and Dance Revival of the early 20th century. The Mary Neal Project brings to light their undertold stories and connects them to the inheritance of song and dance today.

www.maryneal.org | info@maryneal.org

Image and text credit: Neal, Mary [1916] The Espérance Merris Book, Part 1, p.9, London: J. Curwen & Sons Ltd.

Supported by
The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

In Association with the University of Winchester

Hi,

My ~~fav~~ hobby is horse riding, but I love all sports!

What do you get up to in London?

My favourite thing about the Mary Neal project is making up ^{our} ~~the~~ own dance!

Bye!
from Lucy

Mary Neal and the Somerstown girls of the Espérance Club were the instigators of the English Folk Song and Dance Revival of the early 20th century. The Mary Neal Project brings to light their undertold stories and connects them to the inheritance of song and dance today.

www.maryneal.org | info@maryneal.org

Image credit: Camden Local Studies and Archives Centre
Holborn Library, 32-38 Theobalds Road, London WC1X 6PA

Text credit: Neal, Mary [1910] The Espérance Morris Book, Part 1, p.vii,
London: J. Curwen & Sons Ltd.

In Association with the University of Winchester

Hiya peeps!

I love art and some people say that I'm quite good at it.

My favourite thing about the Mary Neal project is learning all the different dances.

Whats your favourite thing?

Mary Neal and the Somerstown girls of the Espérance Club were the instigators of the English Folk Song and Dance Revival of the early 20th century. The Mary Neal Project brings to light their untold stories and connects them to the inheritance of song and dance today.

www.maryneal.org | info@maryneal.org

Image credit: Camden Local Studies and Archives Centre
Holborn Library, 32-38 Theobalds Road, London WC1X 6PA

Text credit: Neal, Mary (1910) The Espérance Morris Book, Part 1, p.vii,
London: J. Curwen & Sons Ltd.

Looking forward to meeting you!

from,

♥ Billie x ☆

Supported by
The National Lottery
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

In Association with the University of Winchester

Hi!

I like animals! especially Elephants, Giraffes and Monkeys. What do you like?

I love sweets aswell bon bons
the best.

I like the mary neal project because of all the Morrison dancing. What thing do you like!

Mary Neal and the Somerstown girls of the Espérance Club were the instigators of the English Folk Song and Dance Revival of the early 20th century. The Mary Neal Project brings to light their untold stories and connects them to the inheritance of song and dance today.

www.maryneal.org / info@maryneal.org

Image credit: Camden Local Studies and Archives Centre
Holborn Library, 32-38 Trenchard's Road, London WC1X 6PA

Text credit: Neal, Mary (1910) The Espérance Morris Book, Part 1, p.vii, London: J. Curwen & Sons Ltd.

X X X

Supported by
The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

In Association with the University of Winchester

41.

The I Like
the Oivin.

Mary Neal and the Somerstown girls of the Espérance Club were the instigators of the English Folk Song and Dance Revival of the early 20th century. The Mary Neal Project brings to light their undertold stories and connects them to the inheritance of song and dance today.

www.maryneal.org | info@maryneal.org

Image and text credit: Neal, Mary (1910) The Espérance Morris Book, Part 1, p.9, London: J. Curwen & Sons Ltd.

Supported by

The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

In Association with the University of Winchester

Giokanni

It was a Fun and excited

Mary Neal and the Somerstown girls of the Espérance Club were the instigators of the English Folk Song and Dance Revival of the early 20th century. The Mary Neal Project brings to light their undertold stories and connects them to the inheritance of song and dance today.

www.maryneal.org | info@maryneal.org

Image and text credit: Neal, Mary [1910] The Espérance Morris Book, Part 1, p.9, London: J. Curwen & Sons Ltd.

Supported by
The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

In Association with the University of Winchester

Asid

I like when we don't dance.

Mary Neal and the Somerstown girls of the Espérance Club were the instigators of the English Folk Song and Dance Revival of the early 20th century. The Mary Neal Project brings to light their undertold stories and connects them to the inheritance of song and dance today.

www.maryneal.org | info@maryneal.org

Image and text credit: Neal, Mary [1910] The Espérance Morris Book, Part 1, p.9, London: J. Curwen & Sons Ltd.

Supported by
The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

In Association with the University of Winchester

memorize a pip and dive

Mary Neal and the Somerstown girls of the Espérance Club were the instigators of the English Folk Song and Dance Revival of the early 20th century. The Mary Neal Project brings to light their untold stories and connects them to the inheritance of song and dance today.

www.maryneal.org | info@maryneal.org

Image and text credit: Neal, Mary [1910] The Espérance Morris Book, Part 1, p.9, London: J. Curwen & Sons Ltd.

Supported by

The National Lottery[®]

through the Heritage Lottery Fund

In Association with the University of Winchester

It it was fun and amazing
I will miss you

Mary Neal and the Somerstown girls of the Espérance Club were the instigators of the English Folk Song and Dance Revival of the early 20th century. The Mary Neal Project brings to light their undertold stories and connects them to the inheritance of song and dance today.

www.maryneal.org | info@maryneal.org

Image and text credit: Neal, Mary [1910] The Espérance Morris Book, Part 1, p. 8, London: J. Curwen & Sons Ltd.

Supported by
The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

In Association with the University of Winchester