Dear Mr. Hudson.

This is my fare for the Miss W. Hennings, we are expecting them at 5.0 Cumberland Market by the train which gets to Paddington at 4.15. The same gentleman will meet them.

I should like them to insure the Horns etc at the station as they have to be taken great care of.

I am sure you will talk nicely to them both about not having any beer until after the concert, because it is so important and so very little upsets them.

They shall have some for supper afterwards.

Yours truly,
Mary Keel.
